The United States Olympic committee is tax-exempt under Internal Revenue

Code (IRC) Section 501(a), as an organization described in IRC Section

501(c)(3). It is recognized as a publicly supported organization under IRC

Section 170(b)(1)(a)(vi).

The USOC was incorporated by Congress for the purpose of establishing national goals for amateur athletic activities and to aid and encourage the attainment of those goals. The USOC is charged with the task of coordinating and developing amateur athletic activity in the United States which directly relates to international amateur athletic competition. In addition, the USOC exercises exclusive jurisdiction over all matters pertaining to the participation of the United States in the Olympic, Paralympics, and Pan-American games. The USOC also represents the United States as its National Olympic Committee in relations with the International Olympic Committee and the Pan-American Sports Organization, and as the National Paralympics Committee with the International Paralympic Committee.

See Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments for description of programs that accomplish the USOC's exempt purpose and mission.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the explanations required by Part II, line 10; Part II, line 17a or 17b; and Part III, line 12. Also complete this part for any additional information. (See instructions).

Based on its programs, the USOC continues to qualify as a publicly supported organization under IRC Section 170(b) (1) (a) (vi). For the year ended December 31, 2010, the USOC received 38.17 percent of its total support from public support, which meets the 33.33 percent requirement.

The USOC actively solicits public support through its national direct mail solicitation program. The organization also has an ongoing major gift solicitation program directed at securing large cash donations from corporations and individuals.

The USOC is a federally chartered not-for-profit corporation. The only governmental funding the organization receives is approximately 3.3% of total revenue and is designated for Paralympics military programs. It thus relies on its ability to generate revenue for its operations through contributions from the general public, royalty revenue from the sale of Olympic broadcasting rights and marks rights, all in support of its mission.

The USOC's Board of Directors is composed of unpaid volunteer individuals, six members from the general public, three members selected from those nominated by the National Governing Bodies' Council, three members selected from those nominated by the Athletes' Advisory Council, any United States members of the IOC (currently three), and the CEO as an ex-officio, non-voting member.

The USOC operates three training centers for the benefit of the United States athletes training to become members of various United States Olympic, Paralympic and Pan-American teams. The facilities are made available to other not-for-profit organizations on a space available basis for various meetings. The USOC is an active participant in promoting amateur sports and physical fitness in the United States. The USOC's promotion and awareness campaign of promoting sports and physical fitness is carried out through various educational programs, and often in conjunction with other organizations. For example, the USOC partnered with the Ad Council for a public awareness campaign targeting teens on the dangers of steroid use. The USOC hosts an annual program called F.L.A.M.E.

(Finding Leaders Among Minorities Everywhere) to emphasize the importance of sport and leadership skills.

We believe these facts and circumstances establish the USOC as an organization exempt under IRC Section 501(a), as an organization described in IRC Sections 501(c)(3) as a publicly supported organization described in IRC Sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(a)(vi).

Also complete this part to provide any additional information.

Part III, line 4: The USOC owns two Olympic-themed paintings by a renowned painter, bronze sculptures and several Olympic artifacts, which preserve the history of the Olympic movement in the United States.

Part V, line 4: Income from restricted funds is used to provide grants and support for US Olympic athletes.

Part X, Line 2: As required by the uncertain tax position guidance, the Committee recognizes the financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more likely than not sustain the position following an audit. For tax positions meeting the more-likely-than-not threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant tax authority. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material effect on the Committee's condensed consolidated financial statements.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

USOC grant funds awarded to National Governing Bodies (NGBs) are agreed upon and administered through a Performance Partnership Agreement

(PPA). The approved projects and payment schedule are outlined and agreed upon in the PPA. NGBs receive payments from the USOC on a quarterly basis. Prior to releasing funds, NGBs are required to provide a quarterly report outlining the amount of dollars spent on each of the USOC approved projects. At the end of the year NGBs are required to provide a final report on each of the USOC approved projects. The NGBs are then periodically audited by the USOC Audit

Part IV Supplemental Information

Division.

The Direct Athlete Support Program is also agreed upon and administered though the PPA. The payment schedule for athletes is outlined in the PPA as well and typically the payments are either monthly or quarterly.

The NGB submits the athlete designation list and a signed (by the athlete) athlete support designee form before the USOC will begin the process for athlete payments. Prior to payments being made to an athlete, we confirm that the athlete is compliant with anti-doping requirements. Once we confirm compliance the athlete will then be paid. There are no reporting requirements for the athlete other than maintaining their competitive status in their sport.

Part II Officers, Directors, Trustees, Key Employees, and Highest Compensated Employees. Use duplicate copies if additional space is needed.

For each individual whose compensation must be reported in Schedule J, report compensation from the organization on row (i) and from related organizations, described in the instructions, on row (ii). Do not list any individuals that are not listed on Form 990, Part VII.

Part I, Line 1a: First-class or charter travel

The CEO and COO may fly business or first-class at their discretion on domestic and international flights. Managing Directors and above may fly business class at their discretion on flights with segments of five hours or more in duration. The USOC has determined that it is sometimes beneficial for Board members to have their spouses accompany them to particular events, such as the Olympic Games. In such cases if expenses are paid by the USOC, the costs associated with the spouses travel is reported to the Board member as 1099-MISC income as taxable wages.

Housing allowance or residence for personal use

The USOC provided a housing allowance for the Acting CEO and Chief of Human Resources, which was compensatory to those individuals. The amounts were grossed up for tax purposes.

Part I, Line 4a: The following severance payments were made to employees

listed in Part II

James Scherr $116,252

John McWilliams $175,000

Part I, Line 7

The compensation philosophy of the USOC is that base pay plus at-risk bonus is the market rate for all full-time and part-time positions. At-risk bonus compensation is based upon a combination of organizational and individual goal attainment. The Board of Directors determines the organizational achievement by using a performance screen which identifies and quantifies annual goals and objectives for the organization. One of those goals is meeting the board approved annual budget. The Board of Directors determines the attainment of these goals over the course of the year and at year end expresses them as a percentage of the goals. Once that percentage is determined it is applied across the organization in a consistent formula based upon an individual's job grade with a cap applied at the high end.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1: Members of the USOC board who also serve on the International Olympic Committee's (IOC) Board of Directors are allocated one vote and all other members are allocated two votes. For 2010 there were three members of the board who also served on the IOC board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 4: The Board of Directors voted to expand the board by adding four new director positions. This was implemented at the recommendations of the Paul Tagliabue-led independent advisory committee. The four seats are designated to be filled by two independent directors, one representative of the National Governing Body Council (NGBC) and one representative of the Athletes' Advisory Council (AAC). The CEO was added as an ex-officio, non-voting member.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: A completed copy of the USOC Form 990 will be provided to the Board of Directors prior to the filing date. Any questions or concerns will be directed to the attention of the CFO and the Chair of the Audit Committee. The CFO will meet or conduct a conference call with the Audit Committee to discuss any issues or concerns that are brought up by the USOC board members. The CFO will take immediate action to resolve any outstanding issues raised by the members of the board or the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee will formally approve the completed 990 prior to it being filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: The USOC obtains annual certifications from the organization's staff and Board of Directors. The Ethics Officer reviews the completed disclosure statements and provides copies to the Chair of the Ethics Committee on an annual basis. The Chair of the Ethics Committee has the discretion to share the disclosure statements with the entire Ethics Committee, Board of Directors and/or CEO. The Ethics Officer and the Chair of the Ethics Committee determine whether a conflict exists and so mark their decision on the disclosure statement, also indicating the required corrective action should they determine that a conflict exists (which may include, but is not limited to, prohibiting the person from participation in the organization's deliberations and decisions in the transaction).

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: All Employee Compensation

The USOC has an established salary structure consisting of 22 overlapping, symmetrical salary ranges (grades A through V). Each range includes a minimum, midpoint, and maximum pay level. The salary ranges have been developed by blending our compensation philosophy, nationally available independent salary survey data and economic business conditions. A job description for each job title is established in cooperation with the employee and the supervisor, with final approval by human resources (HR). Final determination of the pay grade may also take into account available data regarding salaries paid for similar jobs in the marketplace as well as internal equity considerations.

All full-time and part-time regular employees are eligible for annual merit increases based upon performance. The approved merit pool for all employees is determined by the Compensation Committee of the USOC Board of Directors

(BOD) based on compensation philosophy, nationally available independent salary survey data, economic conditions and the recommendations of management.

All full-time and part-time regular employees are eligible for at-risk bonus compensation based upon organizational goal attainment as determined by the board of directors and individual goal attainment.

CEO Compensation

Merit increases and at risk compensation is determined by the Compensation

Committee for the CEO using processes similar to those described above for all employees. The Compensation Committee then provides a written confirmation of the process and outcome to human resources and finance for documentation and audit purposes.
