

Champion Schools- Where Sports Meet Schools in Partnership

The idea of schools focusing on athletics is a natural partnership. Commitment to practicing, being strategic, determined and hard-working are essential qualities to competing successfully both academically and athletically. We look forward to hearing from you.

We believe that the discipline gained in sports activities supports academic performance and is transformative in young people.

Current Classroom Teaching and Trainer/Coaching Positions Available

These positions are at our school in Phoenix, Arizona. A stipend will be paid to teachers and trainers relocating from other states. Salaries are competitive with the top paid districts in Arizona with bonuses, benefits and professional development funds available for graduate studies.

We plan to open schools in the next 2-3 years in California, Illinois, Ohio and Virginia and are looking for teachers who are interested in being in our leadership pipeline.

We are seeking teachers, trainers and potential school leaders who share our vision. Please visit our website at www.championschools.org

The idea of schools focusing on athletics is a natural partnership. Commitment to practicing, being strategic, determined and hard-working are essential qualities to competing successfully both academically and athletically. We look forward to hearing from you.

We believe that the discipline gained in sports activities supports academic performance and is transformative in young people.

Principals Only, EOE

To apply for this position, please contact USOC Career Services at (800) 933-4473, extension 1.