

Fencing World Championships

---

by George Masin

Last Revised: 17 October 2011

1921

From 1921 through 1936 (except in the Olympic years of 1924 and 1928) the Federation Internationale d'Escrime held yearly competitions called the “European Championships”. In spite of their name, non-Europeans were allowed to compete in them and so these competitions are considered to be the first world championships for fencing. It was not until 1937 that the name of the competitions was officially changed from “European Championships” to “World Championships”.

At the first European Championships in 1921 only one event was contested.
