

Did you know...?

GENERAL INFORMATION

Las Vegas Hilton

- The Las Vegas Hilton, headquarters hotel, for the 2012 U.S. Open Taekwondo Championships will be changing its name as of January 3, 2012.
- Below are some of the common questions and answers regarding this hotel name change

Q: Why is the Las Vegas Hilton changing its name?

A: Hilton worldwide will not be renewing the franchise license for the property. Without this agreement, the property must use another name. On January 3, 2012, the name will change to the LVH-Las Vegas Hotel & Casino.

Q: When will the name change occur?

A: The franchise license expires on January 1, 2012. By mutual agreement the Hilton name will change on the property by January 3, 2012.

Q: What will change besides the name of the hotel?

A: Only the name will change. All standards and amenities of the LVH will remain the same. The same great staff, service and facilities are here to assist you. However, without a Hilton franchise license, LVH will not be eligible to participate in the Hilton rewards program and will not be connected to the Hilton reservation system after January 3, 2012.

Q: Will the reservations or hotel phone number change?

A: The direct phone numbers to the property will not change. (702) 732-5111 or reservations (800) 732-7117

Q: Will hotel guests have to change anything with their reservations?

A: If reservations were made directly with the website of lvhilton.com or through the passkey site, nothing will change. After January 3, 2012, LVH will no longer be part of the Hilton reservation system. If guest have questions, they should call LVH directly to verify their information.

2012 U.S. OPEN TAEKWONDO CHAMPIONSHIPS

Medals/Awards

- The U.S. Open Taekwondo Championships are modeled after the Olympics in that the top finishers of each division are awarded for their achievement. For the National Team divisions (senior divisions) we award Team awards as well as special awards based off of the athletes' skills, sportsmanship and leadership on and off of the taekwondo mat.

Printed Event Programs

- Event programs are sold on-site during the U.S. Open Taekwondo Championships. These can be purchased at either the ticket booths or accreditation area during competition days.

Brown Paper Tickets – Spectator Tickets

- You can now order your event tickets online at www.brownpapertickets.com. By ordering your tickets online you will save time and money. In 2012, you can print your ticket at home and bring to the event. We will have scanners there to scan your ticket and get you to the action quicker.

EVENT ENHANCEMENTS

Division Finals

- In 2012, we will be holding division finals in the senior divisions. These finals will take place once all finals are set for the competition day. We will be announcing the start of each final so that spectators will be informed of when the matches are starting on the championship mats.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Please check out the U.S. Open Taekwondo Championships webpage (<http://usa-taekwondo.us/events/8350>)
- Follow USA Taekwondo on Facebook (www.facebook.com/USATNGB)
- Follow USA Taekwondo on Twitter (@USA_Taekwondo)

